Franklin Pierce Company Make An Easy Win in Fast Company.

The Franklin Pierce hand tub, Eureka, won first prize at the fireman's muster at Amesbury, on Thursday, and they won it in competition with some of the best tubs in New England. There were thirteen hand-tubs in the play-out and the local company drew the second position in the play-out. The weather conditions were not the best, as there was a high wind blowing, and it broke around the corner of the building across the stream. It was so bad at times that some of the tubs did not reach the paper.

FEAR JAIL DELIVERY FOR YEGGS

The first prize was $200 in cash. The Veteran firemen on their return, by special electric car, burned considerable red flag and paraded about the city with brooms. They will go to Rochester fair today and expect to get into the money there.

Extra Precautions Taken To Guard Prisoners

Task of Removing Them To Atlanta Serious One

Many Noted Yeggs Have Been in the Sea City Since Trial Began—Inside Story of Events Which Led Up to Arrest and Conviction—Long Record of Crime

Extra precautions have been taken by the government to prevent the forcible delivery of the five post office breakers from the custody of the Rockingham county officials. In addition to the regular day guard at the jail on Penhallow street Deputy Sheriff Wilbur B. Shaw and Turnkey John E. Deesley have been constituted a night shift. The big are lights in the jail yard have been relighted for the first time since the attempt to release John Doe and Joe Gould, the Rockingham bandits, from the jail.

While the government and county officials refuse to announce an official statement, they do not deny that the trial of the yeggs attracted others of equally famous brethren to the city. Anticipating an effort to "break" the jail from the outside the officials took the extra precaution for safety. Inspectors Harry W. Robinson of Lawrence, Mass., and William W. Stone of Concord, who collected the evidence against the yeggs that caused Judge Edgar Aldrich to impose sentence ranging from one to seven years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, are said to have recognized the invading yeggs in this city.

As the new yeggs disappeared from this city yesterday forenoon, inspectors Robinson and Stone left in the afternoon for Rochester fair. Word has come to this city that the inspectors pointed out to the local police six yeggs who have nationwide reputations.

WAR ON TRUSTS WILL CONTINUE, SAYS PRESIDENT

"Big Interests" Must Come Within the Law, Even if Business Does Suffer

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 23—President Taft today, in a speech defining "The Relation of the Government to Business," announced that the trust prosecutions, begun by the department of justice at Washington, would continue despite the recent criticisms that business was being made to suffer. He served notice that the "big business interests" of the country must be brought within the law, just as the railroads have been, and declined to admit that there exists any discretion which would enable the attorney general to stay the hands of the government. At the same time the President made an earnest appeal for reasonable consideration of the railroads and the big industrial corporations on the ground that their reformation was being brought about steadily and satisfactorily and that nothing was to be gained by "vindictive hostility." Mr. Taft utterly denounced those politicians who seek to arouse the prejudices of the people and to carry one section or the country against another. Such utterances he declared to be those of "blindest of men." The trust prosecutions, Mr. Taft said, need not be long continued because he believed the business community was rapidly taking in the effect of the recent decisions of the supreme court and were preparing to square themselves with the law. "We have reached the point," he said, "where we can call a halt; not in the progressive movement to keep business free from abuses, but where we can call a halt against appeals to a spirit of pure hostility to prosperity on the theory that no one can be prosperous without being dishonest or a violator of the law." Here, in Iowa, the home of many of the progressives in Congress, President Taft declared: "It is not a progressive policy in any true sense, to be hostile to the prosperity of any part of the country. It is not progressive to be against a railway corporation because it is a corporation." Mr. Taft repeatedly declared against sectional prejudice and unreasonable denunciations of corporations by persons seeking political advantage. "Why," he asked, "should we allow the political fortunes of any of any man, or set of men, to mislead us into a hostility toward parts of the country which is certain to work injury to all?" "We are all in the same boat; all tossed by the same waves. Let there be no prostration of business in one large section and that prostration will quickly spread to all the rest. Let us reason together," exclaimed the President. "Let us be charitable and kind. Let us not be suspicious and ascribe corrupt motives to every one in the community but our particular friends and political

Very Charming Wedding at Congregational Church, Rye.

The Congregational church at Rye was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening, when Miss Elizabeth P. Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Herbert Perkins, of that town, became the bride of Mr. Wallace H. Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman R. Garrett, of Rockland street, this city.

The wedding ceremony took place at six o'clock and at that time the church was crowded with relatives and friends from this city, spectators electric cars being sent down from here. The church was very prettily decorated with autumn foliage and flowers.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Mills, the pastor of the church and the wedding party were: Ushers—Messrs. Lawrence Payser, Remick Lighton, Charles H. Walker of this city, and Joseph Drake of Rye. Bridesmaids—Miss Irma Young of Exeter and Miss Laura Frame of Boston. The maid of honor was Miss Florence Garrett of this city, a sister of the groom.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, radiant in a gown of white satin with pearl trimmings, and she wore a tulle veil, caught with a spray of lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of the same dainty flower.

They were met at the chancel rail by the groom, who was attended by Mr. Alvin F. Reddin, of this city.

An informal reception was held at the church and later a reception for the bridal party was held at the home of the bride in Rye, and the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by their parents.

A wedding supper of salads, ices, cake and coffee was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett left during the evening in an automobile for North Hampton where they took the train for Boston, and after a wedding tour they will reside in this city, where the groom is connected with his father in the grocery business.

A BOSTON GIRL'S BUDGET

Lobstermen Take a Buck Deer in Boston Harbor. "Learn to Earn" is slogan of the Three Million Dollar Wentworth Institute. How They Do It in the Big Workshops Will Be Shown at Industrial Exposition. Equal Suffrage Drama "A Woman's Influence" Makes a Great Hit

Boston, Sept. 28, 1911.—Maine has nothing on Massachusetts in its hunting grounds. When a lobster fisherman captures a buck deer swimming in the main ship channel of the harbor, near Boston Light, there is something to brag about in hunting preserves. The fishermen were so surprised and overcome by the capture made after a short chase which found the deer so exhausted that it was but slight effort to get him in the boat, that they did not know what to do with the frightened creature.

The police were notified and gave the animal a ride in the hurry-up wagon to the station house, where it was given the privileges of the stable and large quantities of hay and salt. After a little rest the deer was transported with care to the Blue Hills Reservation and released, this appearing with a toss of his head in dense weeds resembling those of his habitat.

"Learn to earn" continues to be the great watchword in educational Boston. The Hub's newest trade school, the Wentworth Institute, has opened its doors for the first time to admit more than a thousand students. This opening enrollment proves the place which has been waiting for just such an educational school. The late Arioch Wentworth made a bequest of $3,500,000 for the purpose of founding an institution where students might obtain practical instruction enabling them to enter all branches of industrial life, in which they will be prepared to earn their living from the moment of graduation. Those who aspire to responsible positions in mechanical and manufacturing plants will receive a training at the institute which will fit them for practically any position along these lines. The large registration for the first season is highly gratifying to the trustees, and the enthusiasm of the students over this new opportunity is marked.

Many New Englanders will get a new light on the way things are done nowadays during the big industrial exposition which opens October 2, at the Mechanics Building. It is one thing to go to a fair and gaze interestedly at the results of unseen operations in the mechanical and technical world, but quite another to go and watch the actual processes of manufacture. The enormous task of arranging all the exhibits has kept Huntington Avenue a scene of great activity for the past week, the big trucks and teams now being replaced by the throngs of visitors from out of town and in town who make their way to the doors of the big building.

The girls waited impatiently for the whistle which started the first football game of the season at the Stadium, when Harvard met the sturdy boys from Bates College. To be sure, it was only a practice game, so to speak, but it started the ball rolling. It will be but a few short weeks before the line-up will form for the great events of the season. Then, too, we're going to have a chance to see the Carlisle Indians again this year, and that is excuse enough for any amount of impatience and excitement.

Use TIZ- Smaller Feet

Sore Feet, Tender Feet and Swollen Feet Cured Every Time. TIZ Makes Sore Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them

Everyone who is troubled with sore, sweaty, or tender feet—swollen feet—smelly feet, corns, callouses or bunions can quickly make their feet well now. Here is instant relief and a lasting permanent remedy—it's called TIZ. TIZ makes sore feet well and swollen feet are quickly reduced to their natural size. Thousands of ladies have been able to wear shoes a full size. Thousands of ladies have been able to wear shoes a full size smaller with perfect comfort.

It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principal of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleanses them out and keeps them clean. It works right off, it has been made a live issue in the campaigns. One candidate for the legislature who has been for years the leader of his ward, holding every thing with a sure rein, won his nomination at the recent primaries by a bare 100 votes over a third candidate, the result being largely due to his persistent scuttling away from the suffrage issue and refusal to commit himself either one way or the other. Many previous bearers of his standard who were as keenly opposed to suffrage as he was, became disgusted with his avoidance and evasion of the suffragists who asked him a fair and square question and of the vilifying slurs which he cast on them personally and generally and refused to vote in his favor. Womanward the course of empire takes its sway.

VESSEL WAS STRIPPED

Police Looking for Ship's Rigging

Sol Jacobs the mackeret king, is again in trouble. His sloop, Quarelle, has been stripped of practically every available strand of rope as she lay at a south end dock and Sol has not got sufficient rope to properly handle the sloop at sea. Until the exchequer is replenished the Quarelle will not leave port.

Jacobs, who recently was adjudged bankrupt, put into port with a big lot of mackerel. When the catch was sold to a wholesale fish dealer Jacobs left the ship. He returned the following morning to find that the sloop had been relieved of all the rope. With Patrobian George H. Carleton, Jacobs has made a round of the junk dealers. He did not find the rope. The crew is disgruntled at the failure of Jacobs to pay them at the close of the trip. They do not deny knowing what was done with the rope.

ITALY NOTIFIES TURKEY OF ITS INTENTION

Rome, Sept. 28.—The Italian government has notified Turkey of its intention to occupy Tripoli and Cyrene.

Economic concessions offered by Turkey at the eleventh hour are rejected by Italy, which announces its purpose to protect its interests and its dignity in its own way, relying no longer on Ottoman promises.

In the note Italy announced her intention to occupy Tripoli and Cyrene, addressed by the Italian foreign minister to the Italian charge d'affaires at Constantinople. This note is supposed to have been prepared sometime during Tuesday night, but the exact hour of its delivery to the Porte is not revealed.

The communication, while leaving no opportunity for negotiations over the fact of occupation, is an ultimatum in that it demands that the Turkish government reply within 24 hours, declaring that it will not oppose the measures which Italy has adopted to effect the solution of the difficulty which it considers necessary. In the absence of such a reply, Italy will proceed immediately, "with measures destined to assure the occupation."

Text of the Italian Note.

"During a long series of years the government of Italy never ceased to make representations to the Porte upon the absolute necessity of correcting the state of disorder to which the government of Turkey had abandoned Tripoli and Cyrene. These regions should be admitted to the benefits of the progress realized by other parts of the Mediterranean and Africa.

"This transformation which is imposed by the general exigencies of civilization, constitutes for Italy a vital interest of the first order by reason of the slight distance separating these countries from the coast of Italy.

"Notwithstanding the attitude taken by the government of Italy, which has always accorded its loyal support to the imperial government in the different political questions of recent times; notwithstanding the moderation and patience shown by the government of Italy, its views concerning Tripoli have been badly received by the imperial government, but more than that, all enterprise on the part of Italians in the regions mentioned has been systematically opposed and unjustifiably crushed."

To Entertain Chilean Admiral.

The Navy Department has been notified by the Chilean legation that Admiral Coni, the president of the Chilean Naval Commission visiting foreign countries to acquire ideas in the latest naval design developments, will reach Washington from New York Thursday. The Navy Department will make every effort to gratify the admiral's desire to see everything of interest at the Washington Navy Yard where the navy's great guns are made, and at the proving grounds at Indian Head, forty miles down the Potomac. Lieutenant R. E. White, of the Bureau of Naval Intelligence, has been detailed to accompany the Chilean officer during his stay in Washington.

BOSTON &amp; MAINE MAN RETIRES

Supt, William Merritt of Portland Division
Succeeded by William F. Ray of Concord, N. H.

After serving the Boston & Maine railroad in different capacities for 50 years, more than half that time as superintendent, William Merritt of Somerville, superintendent of the Portland division, will retire Oct. 2. It was announced yesterday afternoon that William F. Ray, superintendent of the Concord division since 1903, will succeed him as superintendent of the Portland division. Supt. Ray will be transferred from the Concord division by reason of the consolidation of that division with the Southern division.

William Merritt was born in Salem Mass., Aug. 21, 1884. After leaving the public schools he entered the service of the old B & M. R. K. At that time his father was general superintendent. It was in 1901, when 17 years of age that Mr. Merritt began his railroad career.

Ten years later he was advanced to the position of assistant superintendent of the Boston & Maine railroad, in which position he continued for 13 years, up to the time of the consolidation of the Eastern and Boston & Maine railroads. He was then advanced to the position of superintendent, while he has held for the past 27 years. When the Eastern and Western divisions were consolidated into what is now known as the Portland division Mr. Merritt continued as head of that division with headquarters in Boston. This last change went into effect June 20, 1910.

Mr. Merritt is married and his home is at 103 Pearl street Somerville. Mr. Merritt ranks high in the councils of Masonry, being a member of Boston commandery and Massachusetts consistory, 32d degree masons. Although 50 years in the service of the Boston & Maine railroad he is very active.

Previously to his appointment as superintendent of the Concord division in 1903 William F. Ray was assistant superintendent of the Connecticut & Passumpsic division, having risen to that position after long service in the employ of the road.

He is well known in Masonic organizations in New Hampshire and is a resident of Concord. When the first temple in New Hampshire of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine was instituted in Concord in 1905 by officers of Aleppo temple of Boston Mr. Ray was named its first potentate.

The National Hotel is to be still further enlarged.

SAGE TEA WILL
DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color--Dandruff Quickly Removed

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the readymade product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Special agent, G. E. Philbrick, 45 Congress St.

Storer Decatur of Concord, N. H., is visiting his parents here.

Hon. Horace Mitchell passed Thursday in Boston.

Charles Donnell was a visitor to the Rochester fair on Thursday.

Some time during Thursday forenoon occurred an unusually daring break into the carpenter shop and mill of George Colby, situated in rather an isolated spot near the Fort McClary reservation. Entrance was effected by smashing the glass in a rear window and many valuable tools had been deposited outside, then the miscreant was interrupted by the return of one of Mr. Colby's employees, and took to his heels at once. Earlier in the day a stranger had inquired for Mr. Colby at his residence under the pretext of wanting work, and was informed that Mr. Colby was at work on Jamaica Island. The same man was later seen in the vicinity of the shop, and it is supposed is the guilty party.

Sheriff Clarkson took the case in hand, but up to date had been unable to find further trace of the burglar.

Mrs. Moses P. Randall has been called to Everett, Mass., owing to the sudden illness of her daughter Edith.

EDUCATION.

But the physical life, necessary as it is, is only a foundation for the intellectual life. The right government for us, the right government, is the one that not only protects but develops our life, not only safeguards its quantity, but its quality; not only sees to it that we feed our bodies with bread, but that we feed our minds with knowledge. There can be no ginsaying this thesis, for the proudest boast of every American citizen is the splendid efficiency and universality of our American public schools. The plainest man recognizes that as the shop, unwatched is best guarded by a light so the republic needs but little vigilance that is sentinelled by intelligence. We have a right to brains as well as bread.—Rabbi Leon Harrison.

BUSINESS IS TAKING ON A BOOM

With the starting of all the mills River and other cities in New England business begins to take on a more active appearance in New England. The indications point to good times throughout the country in spite of the work of the political shouters. The west is booming and President Taft is leaving a trail of confidence all along the line. He has said to his hearers "let busy" and don't attempt to block progress. To the timid ones he has simply said, "obey the law," and Uncle Sam is behind you. There is plenty of business for everybody.

BIRD'S EYE VIEWS

Portsmouth is experiencing a business boom and it will continue regardless of political campaigns.

Candidate Frothingham ought to whip Governor Foss out of his boots and he will if the people have tired of hot air executives.

So Bass has opened a press bureau in Concord for political purposes and this is our governor that was to represent the whole people.

So it will be necessary to anchor some of the war ships at New York navy yard in the North River to make room. Why not send them to Portsmouth.

Some good clean, bright hustling New Hampshire man will announce himself as a candidate for governor and he will get it. No more foreign stock need apply.

The Herald believes that Secretary Meyer is honest and is trying to conduct the Navy Department in a business way. He is working hard and will make a good record.

THOMAS J. F. VARRELL.

Thomas J. F. Varrell, a life long resident of this city, died at his home on Marcy street Wednesday at 3:40, at the age of eighty-three years. He was a descendant of Christopher Martin of the Mayflower through his mother, Nancy Walker Martin, also a grand nephew of Major Gardner, his grandmother being Peggy Gardner.

The Varrell family, originally French Huguenots, were driven from France into Holland, later coming to this country, three brothers, Varrell settling in Maine and New Hampshire. In early manhood he made several voyages to sea on several noted clipper ships two of which were the Franchonia and Isaac H. Boardman.

His knowledge of Portsmouth's history for the past century was perfect and he took keen delight in reminiscences of the past. He was also an ardent Biblical student. Mr. Varrell learned his trade as a cooper with his uncle, William Martin, and later that of cooper with his father, "Halt" Varrell, whose place of business was at the foot of State street in the days when Portsmouth made fair to be a large maritime port.

He later established a shipyard in Providence, returning to this city he was employed at the navy yard where he remained for many years. His expert workmanship giving him the distinction of preparing the models of our war ships sent from this navy yard to the fair of 1865 and the World's Fair of 1876.

About ten years ago he retired from his employment at the navy yard. He was genial, whole souled and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends. A widow and eight children survive as follows: Dr. Frank M. Varrell, Mrs. Zephary Brown, Mrs. Henry D. Conover, Mrs. W. C. Caswell, Mrs. William G. Parkhurst, Mrs. Frank B. Mason, Mr. Thomas J. Varrell and Miss Jessie Varrell.

RAILROAD NOTES

Engineer Edward Hoyt of the special passenger train from Rochester on Thursday evening reported a man lying within two feet of the track just east of Kittery depot whom he thought might have been struck by a train or have fallen from a car. A brakeman on the same train also saw the man. The station agent at Kittery Junction and baggage master made a hunt for the man along the track, but failed to locate him.

Plans are being perfected for the installing of shower baths and toilet at the power house of the Portsmouth Electric Railway on Nobles Island. Assistant Collector W. F. Barker, of the Boston & Maine was here on Thursday.

Assistant Supervisor of bridges and buildings Frank Wherren of the Boston & Maine is getting the glad hand along the line. The reception is due to the arrival of a boy, at the family residence in Eliot.

Albert Ham engineer on a yard switcher is confined to his home by illness.

Engineer John Brown is substituting in his place.

BAND CONCERT.

City Band Gives the Last of the Series.

The Portsmouth City Band gave their last concert on the square on Thursday and although it was cold, there was a good crowd present.

POLICE COURT.

There were two cases before police court Thursday. Bertha Toner and George H. Burke, charged with being drunk, were given suspended sentences.

A New Remedy for Skin Troubles.

Everyone knows, or should know that many skin troubles are not in the blood, but on the skin itself and that external treatment is the most direct and rational way to effect a cure. The new remedy, Cadum, gives immediate relief in many skin troubles. It has helped so many people that there is no longer any doubt about it. Cadum contains an extract from the tree Juniperus oxycedrus, which acts so rapidly and effectively that the itching is relieved at once and the skin is soon restored to a soft, healthy condition. Cadum is good for eczema, pimples, sores, eruptions, rashes, itching and burning skin, chafing, etc.—100 and 250c, at all druggists.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Gleanings From Files of Portsmouth Chronicle

The Boston Courier states that the Constellation, while on the coast of Africa, outlasted every vessel she fell in with, and has beaten the U. S. steamer Archer while under steam and canvas. The C. frequently left Loando on a cruise, with the Portsmouth in company, but the latter was never able to keep up. After the Saratoga arrived, with her bottom smooth, etc., the C. being foul the U. S. easily ran away from her, leaving her hull down in five hours' sailing.

The roof of the Eastern railroad station in this city, caught fire on Monday afternoon, probably from a spark from an engine, but the fire being discovered it was extinguished with a few buckets of water.

Dep. U. S. Marshal Adams leaves here today for Fort Lafayette, with two resigned officers, formerly in the naval service, who have arrived in the U. S. ships Portsmouth and Constellation at this naval station, in the past week.

Gen. Butler says that he has 3,000 men enlisted for his division, in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont.

The privateer Sumpter was off the harbor of Cayenne on the 15th of Aug. and sent a boat ashore, but was refused admittance, on account of not having a bill of health. They would not submit to five days' quarantine, and left on the 16th.

"Detroit Goldie," was then pointed out to Mr. Robinson as one of the elect. He memory of Howard's face always remained with the inspector.

During the past winter when the breaking of post offices became common and when the public was clamoring for Robinson and Stone to bring the reign of terror to a close, Mr. Robinson, defeated by their failure to obtain evidence, was walking in Lowell. The face of one man who passed him in a crowded street reminded him the memory of "Detroit Goldie." It was Goldie who was passed.

Inspector Robinson assumed that Goldie was in Lowell he was at least in touch with the other yeggs who were blowing the post offices. He shadowed Goldie and saw him enter the house at 231 Appleton street, which was later raided at his arrest by the Lowell police.

The inspector then dropped from sight in order that Goldie might not recall that they had seen each other in Lowell. Inspector Maher and other members of the Lowell police department were brought into the work. They hired rooms in buildings adjacent to the house at 231 Appleton continuously. The officers say that the nights that the yeggs left the house and did not return were followed by reports that post offices had been blown.

Inspector Robinson recalled that Detroit Goldie and Hamilton Jack, otherwise John Kennedy, had been working together in Montreal. He assumed that Jack would be with Goldie if the Detroit boys were identified in these breaks. Securing a picture of Jack from the criminal bureau the inspector sought out the postman who delivered mail at the house, and showing him the photograph said to him "See if this fellow is in the house."

The next time the postman left mail at the shadowed house it was Jack who accepted it. And the frightened postman said to Mr. Robinson, "O, Mr. Robinson I don't want to go there again. The house is full of bandits." Though that assumption was not exclusively maintained by the postman, Mr. Robinson did not confess that knowledge.

Following the breaks of the Salem Depot railroad station, Canobie Lake post office and Reed's Ferry post office, Inspector Robinson decided to haul in the bunch on the charge of vagrancy to prevent a getaway. In the raid made upon the house by the Lowell police, Hamilton Jack, Detroit Goldie, Pete the Dude, one Eyed Mike, The Chicken, George Stewart of this city and a yegg named Barry were arrested. There was one other who subsequently was discharged but who is now sought by the police. Stewart was sent back to the Stratford county farm from which he was an escaped prisoner. Barry is under indictment in Massachusetts for the North Billerica break. The others will soon be on their way to Atlanta.

The following work was tedious but fruitful. When the pictures of the yeggs were published in the newspaper there sprang up scores of people assumed to have seen them in certain places at about the time the breaks were committed. Those who knew positively they had seen the man were weeded out from among the less positive. By means of these witnesses the inspectors "planted" the yeggs in various places men. They cover the post office and then with the assistance of trolley car conductors and motormen they established the time and routes used by them to get from Lowell to the scene of the breaks and return. About this time Judge Samuel Hadley of Lowell received a threatening letter from "One of the Bunch." The authorship of that letter is said to have been traced to Fred Gilbert a Lowell youth who assumed himself to be tough enough to pick with the gang. Gilbert was arrested in this city. He was arraigned before United States Commissioner John W. Kelley and bound over.

The inspectors had several sessions with Gilbert in the Rockingham county Jail. They worked upon him for thirty six hours continuously at first. Whether or not Gilbert "peached" the connecting link in the chain welded by the inspectors is not said but the indictment found against him was not not pressed. The evidence collected by the inspectors in the months of tedious work, was presented to a jury in this city and caused the conviction of three of the men for blowing Canobie Lake post office and the entire five for blowing Reed's Ferry.

John Kennedy, Hamilton Jack alias John Jenkins, John Bart, John Burins, is perhaps the most famous of the yeggs. Kennedy was born in Canada about thirty-five years ago. In 1901 he blew a post office at Rumford, Me., and was sentenced to do four years. He broke jail and was recaptured. In 1902 he was arrested for burglary in Fairfield, Me. While serving the sentence for this crime he again broke jail. In 1905 he and Phoney Frank were arrested for a break in Churchville, N. Y. He was later arrested in Skowhegan, Me., and broke jail while doing a six-months' term.

Jack was run out of Montreal with Goldie in 1905 and the following year he was arrested in Berlin for blowing the post office in Norton Mills, Vt. For that job he did three years and six months at Atlanta.

George Howard, Detroit Goldie, alias Joseph Dennun, Joseph Harris, Tony Welch, and whose real name is believed to be Schwarz, was born in this country thirty-four years ago. In 1903 he was arrested for burglary in Milwaukee and did three years and do half. In 1906 he cracked a post office safe in Albia, Mich., and did three years more. Last year he was arrested under the name of Miller in Montreal and driven out of the city.

Thomas Kelley, Pete the Dude, alias Peter Kelley, William Richardson, Dawson, Thayer Peters, Baker and Boyle was born in this country forty years ago. He has done time (throughout the Middle West under the charge of being tramp) and a vagrant. In 1900 he began a four year term for committing a burglary at a millionaire's home in Buffalo, N. Y. He later did time in Pennsylvania for pocketpicking.

Arthur Williams, alias Mike, was born in Connecticut 27 years ago. He is a brother of William Shinn. Williams' record is confined to petty offenses. He wears an artificial foot.

Frank White, known as One-Eyed Mike, is about 45 years old. He has done time for burglary. White wears a glass eye. He lost the real one while cooking gun powder with Howard in Vermont.

As explained by Inspector Robinson the yeggs had an excellent working organization. Williams was the brains of the bunch. He was the place to be blown and learned the customs and habits of the postmaster, clerks and watchmen. His visit preceded the break by at least a week. Goldie and Kelley are the outside men. They cover the post office prevent the intrusion of blue coated guardians of the peace and other persons of constituted authority. They are strong-arm men. Jack is the inside man. He uses the soap and employs his remarkable ability at separating the doors of safes from the main body of the safes. He is said to be one of the fastest and most accurate workmen in the business.

While is a sort of man of mystery. He is thought by the inspectors to have been the Moriarty of the gang, the promoter who supplied the brains and money needed for the work. Jack Goldie and the Dude will do seven years. While and Williams are sentenced to serve one year and a day.

"THIS IS A MADHOUSE"

The article in last evening's Herald regarding the painting on the side of the gun boat, Marietta such inscriptions as, "This is a Mad House," has been the topic of conversation since. Members of the crew have called at the Herald office to relate their troubles as they see them. They are always dissatisfied sailors aboard every ship, and there are some on the Marietta.

The claim is made that the painting of inscriptions on the ship which red paint, that it was done by a half dozen men who did not like the discipline. From members of the crew it is learned that similar manifestations of disfavor were made practically from the time the Marietta left this port in May for patrol work along Costa Rica and the Caribbean sea. They attribute the cause of the outbreak to the arbitrary enforcement of discipline by the skipper of the ship.

The men say that they left this port in May, and that the first liberty granted them was July 4. They have complained that they were caused to wear their hair cropped close to their heads and were forced to exercise extra precaution in the care of their beard. One member of the crew signified his intention of raising a hedge on the lower end of his chin, but was hauled up to the mast on the charge of having a scraggy and unkempt bush.

In seven months more than $1800 had been taken from the crew by court-martials. During the previous trip the crew lost but $30. It is said that when off Panama the crew asked for leave to participate in sports with many other crews of the navy but were told that they were brought south to work and not to play. About that time some of the furniture of the ship disappeared and the signs "This is a madhouse" first appeared.

The starboard side of the ship, lying the Piscataqua river, was decorated last night. Commander Heywood is a courteous and popular officer in the navy.

The inspection board of the naval department will arrive in this city Saturday to go over the gunboat to determine whether or not it should be placed out of commission permanently. During the past two years the Marietta has commanded more attention than any little boat in the navy. A boat crew from the ship was drowned during a typhoon. Commander Hill was ordered to a court-martial board on the charge of keeping the Marietta out when she was unfit for use. Commander Cooper and his crew mixed up the affairs of a Portsmouth picture house, and finally the Marietta was sent out against the protest of the navy yard that she was not in port long enough to be properly repaired.

NEW SYSTEM FOR DOVER

Highway Accounts to Be Itemized

Dover, Sept. 29.—It was officially stated yesterday that at a special meeting of the board of street and park commissioners it was voted to inaugurate a new system of accounts for the highway department, the object being to promote the efficiency of the department, greater economy in expenditure and a proper separation of the accounts of highways, bridges, sewers and sidewalks.

The new system will include the making of daily written reports by every man employed in the department on time put in on each job or assignment and the systematizing of these data by the city clerk. The exact cost of each job, large and small, will be ascertained.

The department has been subject to criticism for years for not making a better showing with the money appropriated to it. It is asserted by officials that, under the old system of keeping department accounts, large sums have been charged to highways which should have been placed on the sewers, sidewalks or bridges.

It is generally regarded that the system in vogue for many years has been productive of waste of expenditure, and this condition the street and park commission has determined to end through the adoption of thorough business methods in conducting the department.

Come in and see our Dartmouth Range with reservoir, as advertised $37.50, reduced from $48.00, at Paul's, Market street.

"About This Time Look For Heavy Rains"

The raincoat season is here and we are "here with the raincoats."

We are showing the very "latest word" in this line of men's apparel—the "Raglan" Mackintosh. These garments are made of genuine English tweed fabrics, cut in "Raglan" style as the name indicates, and are altogether, the "classiest" rainproof overcoats shown in years. Price, $8.50.

We have besides, the imported English "slip-ons" and all the other new ideas in rubberized coats from $3.98 to $20.00.

STRIKE INEVITABLE ON HARRIMAN LINES

Chicago, Sept. 28.—A strike on all the Harriman lines, including the Illinois Central, will be called as soon as the presidents of the shopmen's international unions involved can be upon the day and hour, according to J. W. Kline, president of the international blacksmiths' and helpers' unions today.

"A strike is inevitable now," said Mr. Kline. "Kratzschmitt replied unfavorably to our final request for a conference, and after a talk this morning with other union presidents, we have decided that the strike must be called."

"Some favor next Monday as the proper time to begin the struggle; others want to begin Saturday. As soon as we decide on the time, the word to strike will be sent to all unions."

The strike order is said to be in the hands of local union heads. Thirty-five thousand men, including machinists, boiler-makers, car repairers, sheet metal workers and blacksmiths, will be affected.

Mr. Kline refused to make Mr. Kratzschmitt's message public.

M. O. O'Sullivan, president of the international sheet metal workers, is here consulting with Mr. Kline. The heads of the boiler-makers and the carmen are in Kansas City, Mo. President O'Connell of the machinists' union is in Davenport.

"We have had a reply from Mr. Kratzschmitt, and it was not satisfactory," Pres. Kline said later. He added that the men stood on their former position and demanded the right to deal with the railroads as a unit. He expressed the belief that the impending strike would spread to all roads in the west as fast as the roads refuse to accept the federation. He added:

"The position the roads take is arbitrary. Mr. Kratzschmitt writes of good wages and the splendid pension system of the Harriman lines. He says nothing of the objectionable physical examination, the personal record system and rank discrimination practiced where men with 20 years' service are transferred to new shops and have to begin their seniority at new shops, where they are likely to be laid off and preference given younger men."

Three of the five international unions involved including the machinists, were said to have agreed on Saturday morning between 10 and 12 as the hour for a general walk-out. The crafts affected, the union men say, include car men, 12,000; machinists, 7,000; boiler-makers, 3,000; blacksmiths 2,000, and sheet metal workers, 1,000. In addition to these four allied trades expected to join the strike are the steamfitters, copper and brass workers, clerks and painters, numbering 10,000 more.

Pres. Kline of the blacksmiths' union will leave tonight for Atlanta, Ga.

SCREAMS FOR HELP HEARD

Audible screams for help and the sight of a white object careening and tossing in swiftly flowing waters of a tributary of the Piscataqua river that extends to the North Mill road, early this morning, have caused the police to investigate a supposed drowning mystery. Vigorous searches, today, revealed no definite clues.

The screams were heard and the white object seen in the water by Henry Gernish, driver of a taxicab. The vehicle was returning from Christian Shore about 12:30 o'clock. When crossing the dirt roadway over the North Mill pond he heard the screams for help and quickly glanced in the direction of the river and saw the white object whirling through the water.

Gernish checked his automobile and ran back to the bridge, then to the shore of the river. The object had disappeared. The police were notified and Patrolman William H. Seymour patrolled the banks of the river in that vicinity throughout the morning. Investigation was resumed today by the day force.

FOREST RANGERS WANTED BY GOVERNMENT

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for Assistant Forest Ranger on October 23-24, 1911. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 400 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1912. Assistant Forest Rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1,100 per annum.

The examination will be held at National Forest headquarters in Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. No examination will be held in Michigan.

The law requiring that, when practicable Forest Rangers must be qualified citizens of the State or Territory in which the National Forest on which they are appointed is situated. Since the list of local eligibles must be exhausted before eligibles residing in other States can be appointed, the chance of citizens of outside States who go to the National Forest States and take the examination to secure an appointment is small.

The requirements and duties of Forest Rangers are thus described in "The Use Book," which contains the regulations and instructions for the use of the National Forests:

"A ranger of any grade must be thoroughly sound and able-bodied, capable of enduring hardships and performing severe labor under trying conditions. He must be able to take care of himself and his horses in regions remote from settlement and supplies. He must be able to build trails and cabins, ride, pack, and deal tactfully with all classes of people. He must know something of land surveying, estimating and scaling timber, logging, land laws, mining, and the livestock business.

"On some Forests the ranger must be a specialist in one of more of these lines of work. Thorough familiarity with the region in which he seeks employment, including its geography and its forest and industrial conditions, is usually demanded, although lack of this may be supplied by experience in similar regions.

"The examination of applicants is along the practical lines indicated above, and actual demonstration by performance is required. Invalids seeking light out-of-door employment need not apply. Experience, not book education, is sought; although ability to make simple maps and write intelligent reports upon ordinary Forest business is essential.

"For duty in some parts of Arizona and New Mexico the ranger must know enough Spanish to conduct Forest business with Mexicans.

"Where saddle horses, or pack horses are necessary in the performance of their duty, rangers are required to own and maintain them. The Forest Service furnishes no personal or horse equipment.

"Rangers execute the work of the National Forests under the direction of Supervisors. Their duties include patrol to prevent fire and trespass, estimating, surveying, and marking timber, the supervision of cuttings, and similar work. They issue minor permits, build cabins and trails, oversee grazing business, investigate claims, report on applications and report upon and arrest for violation of Forest laws and regulations."

The examination will consist of questions regarding the use of the Forest, supplemented by a field test to show the applicant's fitness to do the actual work of a ranger. Education and experience will be rated on the answers to the questions on these subjects in the application form and on the applicant's use of English in the written test. Tests for the tests in riding and packing will be provided by the Forest Service.

The examination is under the control of the Civil Service Commission, and not of the Forest Service, information in detail regarding it, including the names of the places at which it will be held, will be sent to anyone applying to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Taft Defines Red-Cross Status.

The relation of the American National Red Cross to the military arms of the United States was definitely established by President Taft in a proclamation made public yesterday. It announced that the Red Cross is the only volunteer society now authorized by this Government to render aid to its land and naval forces in time of war. Any other body desiring to render similar assistance could do so, the President said, only through the American National Red Cross. National Director E. P. Hicknell of the Red Cross explained today that the proclamation settled all doubt as to the authority of the Red Cross and obviated any friction which might lessen the efficiency of relief work.

POP CONCERT GREAT SUCCESS

CARL BEHR AND HIS MUSICIANS DELIGHT A LARGE AUDIENCE.

There was a large and representative audience at Freeman's Hall on Thursday evening, for the Pop Concert given under the careful management of Mr. Carl Behr, the noted director of the Wentworth Hotel orchestra. It was somewhat of an innovation, a pop concert in this city, but it made a hit.

The hall was handsomely decorated with autumn foliage and the stage banked with potted plants.

The concert was from 8 until 10:45 and dancing followed until midnight. The concert was excellent, especially the soloists.

Mrs. Mary W. Priest rendered two very excellent selections with cello obligato and she was in good voice and forced to respond to an encore. Miss Margaret Frazier also had two selections. Mr. Behr rendered a zither solo and later had a duet, violin and zither, with Mr. Oliver Dowd.

A saxophone solo by Signor Jacques Benaventi was greatly appreciated and he by request gave a second solo.

During the evening refreshments of ices and cake were served in the hall at the tables.

For the dancing the orchestra rendered excellent music of the popular description.

The program was as follows: March, City of Portsmouth, Rhet Overture, Poet and Pheasant, Supper Vocal, Sing Me to Sleep; Greene cello obligato

Carrissima, Marie
Miss Margaret Frazier, Behr
Zither solo, Romanza, Behr
Valse Petit, Behr

Carl Behr.
Grand Opera, Bohemian Girl, Maife
Saxophone solo, Grand Fantasia, Benaventi

Signor Benaventi.
Vocal, Oh, Dry those tears, Regle
In a Garden, Hawley
cello obligato

Mrs. Mary W. Priest
Popular selection, Pink Lady, Kosbna
Descriptive, Hunting Scene, Bullylost with Dog chorus.

Cello solo, Evening Star, Wagner
La Cincantaine, Gabriel Marie
American Patrol, Meehan
Duet, zither and violin, Romanza

from Opera L'Clair
Call me thine own, Halevy
Messrs. Dowd and Behr.

Popular selection, Chocolate Soldier Linke
Star Spangled Banner,
Audience and chorus.

The soloists were:
Mrs. Mary W. Priest, contralto.
Miss Margaret Frazier, soprano.
Signor Jacques Benaventi, saxophone.

Dr. John E. Keefe, pianist.
Oliver Dowd, violinist.
Miss Mabelle Stone, accompanist.
Card Behr, cello and zither.

The many uses of GOLD DUST

If you were to use, for each kind of washing, cleaning, scouring and scrubbing, one of the so-called special preparations which are made, you would have an imposing and expensive array of chemicals, washing compounds, cleaning pastes, etc.

There is one cleaner that has the virtues of all and the faults of none. Use Gold Dust and you have no need of borax, ammonia, kerosene or naphtha.

Gold Dust is sold in 50 size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.

HOW THE NEW LAW WORKS

New York, Sept. 28.—Judge Warren W. Foster, in the Court of General Sessions, yesterday sentenced Marino Rossi, twenty-eight years old, of Newark, to serve a term of one year in the penitentiary after Rossi had pleaded guilty to carrying a pistol without a permit. This is the first prison sentence imposed in this city since the new law making it a felony to carry a dangerous weapon without a permit went into effect, on Sept. 1 last. Rossi was arrested on Sept. 18, by policeman Pileo of police headquarters, while he was standing on the corner of Second avenue and Twenty-eighth street. When searched he had a revolver in his pocket. He said that he had just arrived from Newark and was visiting a friend in New York before going to New Haven to look for work. "I and my friends always carry revolvers. It is customary," said Rossi in pleading for clemency yesterday, "and I did not know I was violating the law. I bought a pistol two years ago, and have carried it ever since. If you let me go I will never carry another one and will stay out of New York."

"Rossi, you are the first person to be sentenced under what is known as the new Sullivan firearms law," said Judge Foster. "The Legislature of this State has made it a felony to carry a revolver concealed about the person. You say you have had this weapon for two years and that it was the custom of yourself as well as the custom of your friends and your countrymen to carry guns of this character. You say that you did not realize that you were breaking the law in so doing. It is unfortunately too true that this is the custom with you and your kind, and that fact, combined with your irascible temperament, furnishes much of the criminal business of this country. I must enforce this law and impose a sentence that will be a warning to every one that the carrying of revolvers must be stopped. As I have remarked many times, the man who carries the pistol always gets the worst of it, and I think the records of this court will substantiate my statement. For carrying this concealed weapon and also that the community may know that this practice must be stopped, I sentence you to serve a term of one year in the penitentiary."

NO DYSPEPSIA OR STOMACH DISTRESS

Heartburn, Gas, Sourness and Stomach Misery Vanishes

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to Stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapepsin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sourdest acid stomach in five minutes besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin. Then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of Gas and Eructations of undigested food, water brash, Nausea, Headache, Bloating and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your Stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from Stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and, besides one 50-cent case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Pape's Diapepsin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house, years old.

JOHNSON-WELLS FIGHT CALLED OFF

London, Sept. 28.—The Johnson-Wells championship fight, scheduled for Oct. 2, has been abandoned by the principals and promoter, owing to the opposition of the authorities and a large element of the public.

The fighters and promoter White, with their lawyers, appeared in the Bow street police court this afternoon and gave a formal undertaking to cancel the contest, whereupon the magistrate adjourned without date the proceedings which had been brought against them on the grounds that they contemplated committing a breach of the peace.

The decision was directly due to the injunction issued yesterday against the lessees of Earl's court at the instance of the District railway company, the freeholders, who alleged that their license would be endangered if the fight was permitted in their building. The promoters talk of holding the contest in Paris.

ASHORE ON PLUM ISLAND.

Schooner Newell C. Hawes, Sand Laden, Found to be in Sinking Condition, is Run on the Flats.

Newburyport, Sept. 28.—Schooner Newell C. Hawes, Capt. Charles Hansen of Boston, was run ashore on the flats on the southeasterly end of Plum Island yesterday afternoon when it was found she was in a sinking condition.

The vessel had been loaded with 150 tons of sand for the Boston market, and when the tide served Capt. Hansen pulled out in the stream and set sail. A leak developed that could not be held in check by the pumps. The crew of the Plum Island lifesaving station under Capt. Frank E. Stevens went to the vessel's assistance. Forty tons of sand was removed and a long time spent at the pumps. The leak could not be found at low tide and the balance of the "Hawes" cargo will have to be removed. The schooner is about 40 years old.

NEW YORK YARD CROWDED

New York, Sept. 28.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer visited the navy yard today to inspect the battleships Utah and Florida, now nearing completion. Secretary Meyer will discuss with Admiral Leutze, the navy yard commandant the practicability of moving the two dreadnoughts into the North river for their final touch-ups, to give more room at the yard.

It is expected that the two new battleships will be moved late in October and will be finished and ready for service by Dec. 1. The Utah, which is the more nearly completed, probably will be made the flagship of the first division of the Atlantic fleet. Secretary Meyer came here yesterday and spent the night aboard the yacht Dolphin.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Holds Adjourned Annual Meeting, and Plans for Dedication

Concord, Sept. 28.—At the adjourned annual meeting of the New Hampshire Historical society, held at the rooms on North Main street on Wednesday, the new by-laws adopted at the last meeting were put in immediate effect by vote of the society, and in accordance with their provisions a new board of trustees was elected as follows:

For four years, Hon. Henry W. Stevens, Amos Tuck French; for three years, Hon. Benjamin A. Kimball, Judge Frank N. Parsons; for two years, John R. Eastman of Andover, and Alfred F. Howard of Portsmouth; for one year, Hon. Frank W. Rollins, Hon. Henry B. Quinby.

A letter was read by the secretary from Rt. Hon. James Bryce, ambassador from Great Britain to the United States, accepting an election to honorary membership in the society, and from Daniel Chester French of New York the eminent sculptor.

At a meeting of the building committee, the membership was enlarged by the addition of Hon. Edward N. Pearson, Hon. Charles R. Corning, Thomas D. Luce of Nashua, Walter M. Parker of Manchester and Henry A. Kimball of this city for the purpose of arranging and carrying into effect the details of the dedication of the new building.

Various plans for the dedication of the new structure were discussed but not attempt was made to fix the date, that matter being left for Mr. Edward Tuck, the donor of the building to decide when he reaches Concord.

It is probable, however that the dedication will occur early in November.

A New Dog Champion.

Jay, until yesterday the proud bulldog mascot of the Dreadnought Delaware, U. S. N. now at New York will probably come forward today with the statement that somebody doped his picnic. On the other hand Mutt, a wire-haired dog of the Topsy breed, and pet of the men of the North Dakota, stretched last night in a cozy corner of the engine room of that ship, and eat milk sops and other dainties. And on his neck was a brand new collar with fine brass ornaments.

Mutt had licked Jay much to the surprise of all the sailors of the Delaware, his friends of the North Dakota and more than all Jay has figured as a Tom Sharkey or dogs, both as a build and pugacity, which of course, made him all the more precious to the sailor boys. He has licked his dog in every port. He once simultaneously put the fangs to three Chinese dogs. Hitherto they couldn't come too big or tough for Delaware grinder.

Mutt sauntered aboard the North Dakota yesterday wholly without a reputation. He probably meant to pay a friendly call on Jay, hoping perhaps for an invitation to luncheon. The sailors laughed and nudged each other when they observed the manner in which Jay bristled at sight of Mutt and called to their mates aboard the North Dakota to come over and see the fun. Jay rushed at Mutt. Mutt drew back in pained surprise. But when Jay insisted on trouble, Mutt went in to the fray like a whirlwind. The jacksies bet hotly on the result of the contest, the North Dakota men themselves backing Mutt only out of loyalty. They really saw no chance for their wiry, lean mascot, it was a little cruiser against a Dreadnought.

Then they all gasped to observe that Mutt was making sausage meat of the champion of many ports; Jay suddenly whined in surrender and limped away. Then the North Dakota men noted Mutt off in triumph. Mutt snarled and growled and

GROOTE WINKEL
"Going to Groote Winkel?" is the query that one meets on every hand, and the answer in many cases is "I don't know where I am going but I am on my way." Perhaps that aptly expresses the interest and uncertainty as to just what Groote Winkel is. It looks as though the Mercedes series 682 F. O. E. had played a trump card when they secured it for their great time, which opens at Freeman's hall for four nights, commencing Tuesday night, Oct. 10.
Those who are on the inside say that nothing equalling it has ever been seen here, and it will astonish and delight everybody. Groote Winkel is Dutch, so it is apparent that there is to be a flavor of old Holland to it, and that being the case, the possibilities are interesting to speculate upon.
OBSEQUIES
Thomas J. Varrell
The funeral of the late Thomas J. Varrell was held at 12 o'clock today from his late residence on Marcy street. Rev. F. H. Gardner conducted the services and H. W. Nickerson was the undertaker in charge.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO NAVY YARD EMPLOYEES

Charleston Commandant to be Relieved
Rear Admiral Charles E. Fox, commandant of the Charleston, S. C., naval station and yard, soon will be relieved by an officer of the active list. Rear Admiral Fox was retired recently on his own application. Mr. Meyer's plans contemplate the use of the yard indefinitely as a torpedo station and school for machinists.
Board Inspect Marietta
The officials inspection board, Capt. Thomas F. Snowden senior member arrived at the yard today there they will inspect the gunboat Marietta to determine the necessary repairs and cost of the same.
Helpers Called
The labor board today issued a call for one moulder's helper and one general helper.
They All Look Good
A fine picture of the clerks taken at the last outing at Rollins Farm on September 23 is being exhibited by Photographer Walter Staples, who has been pressed by members of the group to pick out the best looking man.
Death of Chief Carpenter Hilton
The navy department is informed that Chief Carpenter Osgood R. Hilton, United States Navy, retired, died at Berkeley, Va., the 16th inst. Chief Carpenter Hilton entered the naval service from Maine in 1850 and reached the grade of chief carpenter in March, 1899. He served during the civil war and the Spanish war, being attached to the Boston during the latter period. He was retired in August, 1909, on account of disability incurred in the line of duty.
Fireman from the Queen City
George O. Dockam of Manchester, N. H., has been required on the yard as fireman at the central power plant.
Hurry Her Along
The North Carolina, which has been expected here for some time is still at Newport.

The Herald Hears

That the new street or passage way from Vaughan street to Depot avenue will be paved.
That the railroad expect shortly to begin this work.
That Depot avenue will be graded at the same time.
That there is no mistake, but it needs it.
That Capt. Muchmore ought to be getting some of this prize money with the Franklin Pierce.
That the U. S. S. North Carolina should be poking her nose in the harbor soon.
That the telephone company are at work on the changes to occur in the local system in November.
That Tom McWilliams is handling the reins behind the handsomest piece of horse flesh in the city.
That if the firemen capture a prize at Rochester today, watch for the New England muster here in 1912.
That a new lunchroom will shortly open on Penhallow street.
That the Elks P. A. C. and Knights of Columbus are planning for a busy winter, socially.
That the steam heat was the right thing today.
That the Veteran firemen are building up their treasury considerably with prize money.
That the street paving and curbing near the corner of Vaughan and Russell street is sinking in places.
That it is though a sewer or some pipe line is causing the trouble underneath the blocks.
That Rochester Fair committee should change the date if they want to hit the weather.

Dore on Richards avenue was the scene of a jolly gathering on Thursday evening when a reception was tendered William Winn and wife, the affair being in the nature of a house warming. There was a reception from 8 to 9.30 and the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by their mothers. A number of handsome presents were bestowed and considerable refreshments were served. There were about sixty present.

OBITUARY

Patrick Harnedy
One of the best known Irish residents of the west end district died this morning at his home, 35 Clinton street, after four weeks of illness, aged 43 years. He was a native of Kilmore county, Cork, Ireland, and came to America nearly 25 years ago. Most of his life here he has been employed at the Eldredge Brewing Company. For many years he has been connected with organized labor and gave no small amount of his time in the interest of the same. At the time of his death he was president of the Brewery Workers' Union. He was a member of Division 2, A. O. H., and Court Rockingham, Foresters of America. Besides his wife and six children he is survived by a mother and father, two brothers, Timothy and Richard, a sister, Mrs. Michael Crowley, all of Ireland. Another sister, also, Mrs. Nellie Harnedy, a resident of Providence.

GROOTE WINKEL

Groote Winkel is the rather odd name of the bazaar of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, which opens at Freeman's Hall on Oct 10th. The bazaar will be as odd and different and inviting as its name, something quite different from the ordinary fair. Strange sights and interesting amusements will be found on every hand, and a series of surprises are promised.
ONCE MORE THE SOUTH CLOCK
Once more somebody is busy in the tower of the South ward room. The clock has gone to the bad again and the whole outfit is being stripped. It is hoped that whoever is on the job will at least put the time piece in condition whereby the people at the South end will have the correct time for three months out of a year.

OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

Luxurious comfort, graceful lines, safety, speed and economy. These are the features that have made the motor given ample power, with every purchase, this is the principal feature, the otherwise perfect car in a failure and a disappointment.
The Buick motor is famous for the world over for its marvelous power, simplicity of construction and mechanical perfection.

POLICE COURT

Foreman Ryan of the Postal Telegraph company appeared here in police court on Thursday afternoon in answer to a warrant against the corporation for maintaining a public nuisance on its failure to remove certain poles on Church and Court streets. In answer to the charge he offered a plea of not guilty. The court, city solicitor, inspector of fires and the defendant held a conference on the matter after which Judge Simes continued the case on an agreement that the Postal remove the poles within two weeks.

THE "GROOTE WINKEL"

$5.00 GOES BEGGING
No one was able to identify the Groote Winkel Girl Thursday night and win the $5.00 prize, at least no one approached her with the right query: "Have you a ticket for the Eagle's Fair?" She will stroll up and down Congress street Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, and the same prize will be given to the first person who says to her: "Have you a ticket for the Eagle's Fair?"

Piano Truth

In buying a piano it is better to be sure of quality rather than the price.
Price is something that takes care of itself, naturally.
If you get a Quality Piano, you cannot make a mistake at any rate.
Packard Pianos
are Quality Pianos every time. They are manufactured regardless of what the selling price will be. Therefore the intrinsic value of the Packard is superior to most pianos.
Special attention is directed to the new
